

Riverina Local Land Services Spring Farming Forum

Where:

Conference Room
Temora Agricultural Innovation
Centre

When:

Friday 5 September
9.00am - 5.30pm

Cost:

$20.00 includes lunch, morning
and afternoon tea
pay on arrival (cash only)

For further information or to RSVP contact:

Adelle Wiencke on 0429 851 018
or adelle.wiencke@lls.nsw.gov.au

RSVP by Monday 1 September

Come and hear from a range of industry leaders presenting on the latest research and recent issues in cropping and mixed farming systems.

Topics and speakers include:

Riverina Local Land Services Agronomists Geoff Minchin and Lisa Castleman: 3 month forecasts and sulphur applications in canola.

Moisture monitor network: Farmlinks Tony Pratt

Succession and business planning: Rural Financial Counsellors Lisa Minogue and Carl Scroope

"What to do if you see a mate struggling": John Dean, Murrumbidgee Local Health and John Harper local farmer and mental health advocate

Animal health from now until harvest: Andrew Lockley, Landmark

Erosion control and land rehabilitation on farms
:Rick Carter Soil Conservation Services

Brown manures, the risks and benefits: Robert Patterson RMS Agricultural Consultants

Brucellosis in sheep: Amy Shergold Riverina Local Land Services District Veterinarian

Drone technology in agriculture: Lachlan Caldwell Lachlan Fertilisers

Featuring: IPM Technologies with a summary on the insect issues this year and why it happened; what we can watch for now; what we can do for next year; and insect life cycles and our local farming systems.

