

WiA Wool Power 2015

Wednesday, June 10th
Holbrook, NSW

PROGRAM

10.30 – 12.00pm: Technical and Career workshops run in conjunction with the Holbrook Sheep and Wool Fair for high school students (Holbrook Complex)

5.00 – 6.30pm: "Jobs for the Girls" mini -program run by Jenni Turner and Fiona Raleigh, for all ages and skill levels — meet your mentors! (J&Bs café)

6.30pm – 9.30pm: Women in Wool Networking Dinner, Guest Speakers & Expert Panel (J&Bs café)

- Vicky Geddes, one of the most respected sheep producers in the region to speak on the development of her farm and flock
- Hayley Olsson, a dynamic young film maker who raised funds to produce and distribute wool blankets for the homeless in Sydney.
- Andrew Woods, Independent Commodity Services/Mecardo: an experienced wool analyst will provide insights into the market and future trends.
- Karen Mills, Kardinia Dohne Merinos: an informative stud producer will share her story and knowledge on genetics, innovation, market access and managing different businesses.

All ages and skills levels are welcome!

All parts of the program, including dinner (exc. drinks), are FREE for attendees!

50 spaces only, so get in quickly!

RSVP essential for catering purposes:

by 3th June

02 6036 3181

office@holbrooklandcare.org.au

HLN gratefully acknowledges the assistance of Border Trust and the YWCA Albury Wodonga Young Women Leading Change Grant Program for their valuable contribution to this project.

Support the next generation of women in wool — Celebrate our unique experiences —
Gather to learn, network and have fun